

Purposes of The Wilderland Trust

(as contained in The Wilderland Trust Deed 16.10.1995)

- 1) To provide the environment, facilities and resources necessary for the whole education and development of people (children, youths and adults) and to maintain an open response to whosoever would wish to learn. (While the value of academic, technical and economic skills are readily to be recognised, the educational work of the trust should encompass pupils and teachers understanding relationship, this ability being seen as providing a life-long opportunity to learn and live happily).
- (2) To advance and encourage education and the acquiring of skills including accepting pupils people wishing to learn practical techniques including orcharding, carpentering, beekeeping, organic gardening, machinery maintenance, welding, roadmaking, baking as well as retailing, artistic and cultural skills, and including the establishment and maintenance of a reference library.
- (3) To carry out research and experimentation into methods of organic growing/biological control to promote ecological balance and good health and to participate in the introduction of new plants and the development of new food crops.
- (4) To promote the discovery, development, and use of low impact and renewable energy systems.
- (5) To encourage personal creativity and initiative.
- (6) To maintain any property of the Trust as an area for living free from drugs and as far as possible all harmful substances.
- (7) To protect the purity and sustainability of the natural environment and in particular to facilitate the regeneration of native flora and fauna on land held under title or control of the Trust.
- (8) To maintain and facilitate the further development of Wilderland as a common ground whereon people can come together simply as human beings undivided by status, nationality, race, culture, sex, religion or any ideology, such a meeting place being significant to whole education and the realisation of world peace.
- (9) To do any act deed or thing which may be conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.
- (10) To pay costs expenses and charges arising out of and incidental to the administering of the Trust Fund.
- (11) By the unanimous resolution of the Trustees to revoke or vary or add to any of the provisions of these presents so long as such revocation variation or addition does not affect the charitable nature and/or status of the Trust and is not inconsistent with the general scope of the objects of these presents.